Celebrate Xmas in New York City with Singin' Steve and his friends. Join the carolers in FAO Schwarz, the ice skaters in Rockefeller Center, the ice skaters waltzing beneath the world's most famous Xmas tree and much more. A perfect stocking stuffer, 8 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: Singin' Steve's SmartSongs CDs are popular with children, teachers and parents across America. His brand new CD, "Billy The Bean", tells the story of a little bean named Billy and how with the help of his garden friends, and some very singable songs, Billy grows into a big, green plant. Singin' Steve's other SmartSongs CDs include "Alphabet Town More Alphabet Town", whose narrative and 16 "sing along" songs help prepare a child for reading. "Numberville More Numberville", whose 16 songs introduce a child to numbers, numerals, and counting. And "Learningland Rainbow Village", whose catchy tunes and physical activities introduce preschoolers to each of their five senses, colors and shapes. A graduate of Carnegie Mellon University (BFA 1966) Steve's children's books include Scaredy Dog, published by Alfred A Knopf. His "grown up" songs include Here "Comes The Freedom Train" recorded by both Merle Haggard and Dolly Parton, to commemorate America's bicentennial, "The Lady In The Harbor" for the Emmy award winning documentary by Ken Burns, The Statue of Liberty, and "My Small Town" for the award winning official video of the Calgary Winter Olympics. When not writing songs and recording, Steve spends his time playing golf and performing his songs to children and their families.
