Details: Sinkcharmer was born on a 4-track recorder in Binghamton, NY in 1993. Inspired by the likes of Sebadoh and the Mountain Goats, songs were written and released onto tapes and then CD-Rs and then a full length CD (Stars in Winter). Now with Vegetable Farmer, Sinkcharmer has matched wits with CDR powerhouse Asaurus records to release a new opus. Rock on little chickenheads. Rock On. Note that this release is available from the Asaurus Web Site CDBaby is handling Digital Distro...so if that's your cup of tea look for it at your favorite download retailer in the coming months.
