

Mp3 Tammy Raybould - Maybe

DOWNLOAD HERE

Lilith Fair and Dawson's Creek alumni, Tammy Raybould combines a Sheryl Crow edge and a Jewel-type sweetness to add to her unique charm. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, POP: Folky Pop Details: NEWS NEWS NEWS!!! TAMMY'S NEW CD "THIS IS GOOD" IS ALMOST DONE!!! KEEP A LOOKOUT!!!

Tammy Raybould Career Highlights September 2004-The John Lennon Songwriting Contest has awarded Tammy's song "Awhile" Honorable Mention among thousands of entries! June 2004-Dawson's Creek has bought another one of Tammy's songs "This Is Why" for their DVD edition. December 2003-Tammy's song "This Is Why" is a finalist in the Windrift Songwriting Competition. October 2003- Tammy is invited to New York City to showcase at CMJ Music Conference, sponsored by the USA Songwriting Competition July 2003- Fully endorsed by Daisy Rock Guitars, along with Lisa Loeb, Joan Osborne, Susanna Hoffs (The Bangles), etc. daisyrock.com January 2003- Dawson's Creek has selected Tammy's song "Loving You" for their compilation. August 2002 -Showcased in Atlanta for the Atlantis Music Conference, being the only interenational act, at a show that was sponsored by the USA Songwriting Competition May 2002 -Signed contract with guitargirls.com for compilation CD featuring Tammy, as well as with Brian May of Queen. February 2002 -Winner of the New Artist Showcase in California four weeks in a row October 2001 -Presented a newly recorded song in remembrance of the US tragedy on September 11, 2001, to the US Ambassador to Canada. June 2001 -Chosen as Artist of the Week on the Dawson's Creek website. 2001 -Nominated for Best New Solo Artist at The Canadian Radio Music Awards, along with Nelly Fertado, Sarah Harmer, Molly Johnson, and Adam Gregory. 2001 -"Loving You" was featured on television series "Dawson's Creek" 2000 -"Loving You" charted #54 in Canada (BDS-Adult Contemporary) 2000 -"Loving You" music video achieved rotation on MuchMoreMusic and MuchMusic 1999 -National distribution of "Maybe" by Sony Music Canada 1998 -Lilith Fair (with Sarah McLachlan) BIO Tammy Raybould is used to flying just under the radar. And fly she does-higher and higher with each passing year. After a stellar 2003, and with the release of her next album expected in early 2004, the Ottawa-based singer-songwriter is poised to soar to even greater heights. It isn't just Tammy's unforgettable voice and infectious personality that has won her respect both at home and abroad. Her success is a combination of pipes, passion, soul and blisteringly honest songwriting. As Mark Maheu, General Manager of CHUM Group Radio in Ottawa said of Tammy, "you hear a raw energy and passion that you don't find in a lot of music." The Kingston Whig Standard's Christine Varga put it this way: "The power of her songs is a combination of the subtlety of her lyrics and the power of her voice." Tammy's renown is clearly growing. In the last year alone, her single "Loving You" was selected for a compilation album tied to the hit TV series Dawson's Creek and Tammy won a full endorsement from California's Daisy Rock Guitars, which also sponsors artists such as Joan Osborne, Lisa Loeb and Robert Smith of The Cure. In October 2003, Tammy was invited to New York to participate in a CMJ Music Conference showcase sponsored by the U.S.A. Songwriting Competition. She was also named one of the "Great Women of Song" by CD Baby Radio at MP3(mp3.com/stations/cdbaby3). When Tammy's as-yet-untitled album is released next year, it will be just the latest offering from a gifted artist whose career has steadily gained momentum since the release in 1998 of her inaugural EP, Faade. Her follow-up album, 2000's Maybe, was distributed nationally through Sony Music Canada while the video for "Loving You" achieved rotation on both MuchMusic and MuchMoreMusic. By 2001, Tammy had been nominated for Best New Solo Artist at The Canadian Radio Music Awards alongside Nelly Furtado, Sarah Harmer, Molly Johnson and Adam Gregory. Tammy's performing credits include an appearance at Lilith Fair (with Sarah McLachlan) in 1998 and, in 2000, at New York City's historic Bitter End rock club in Greenwich Village, which has hosted musicians from Joan Baez to Neil Young. Tammy has also opened for the likes of 54-40, Sloan and Wide Mouth Mason. Just where Tammy's career will take her from here is anybody's guess. But with wings like those, nothing can stop her now. "Singer/songwriter Tammy Raybould is one of Canada's savored charms." MSN Entertainment tammyraybould.com

tammy@tammyraybould.com

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: