Catchy rock songs, done acoustically 5 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: It was the summer of 1995, Guns Roses' "November Rain" was at the top of the charts and the loss of Kurt Cobain was still fresh in Adam Zadok's memory. For the first time since he and his family had immigrated to New York City, Adam was back in Israel. While visiting his cousins in Holon, Adam caught sight of his relative's new guitar. Without hesitation the words "Can I try?" spilled from his mouth. On that day a bond was formed that would result in the birth of a musician, songwriter, and a true lover of all music. Influenced by an eclectic group of bands including Creedence Clearwater Revival, Green Day and Nirvana, Adam has formulated a style and sound that is all his own. With biting lyrics and haunting melodies, Adam Zadok's music is a breath of fresh air in an all too contrived music industry.
