Details: Like many of the great singers today, Huriyah Boynton started singing at the early age of 5 with his church choir, in his hometown of Jeffersonville, Georgia. Huriyah soon developed a passion for singing and performing for an audience. That passion led him to Lamor Records where at the tender age of 14, his recording career began. At Lamor Records, he worked with producer, Jackie Avery and recorded "Running Out Of Fools" and "Girl I Feel It". Huriyah went on to perform for sold out audiences in local clubs around Macon, Georgia with the R&B group, "The Flintstones". In 1979, Huriyah moved to Detroit, Michigan where he began his very popular Gospel Ministry, Hour of Grace, Blessings and Healing. "Bishop Huriyah" as he affectionately became known, touched millions with his message and music through his radio and television broadcasts. In 1991, on Bellmark Records, Huriyah recorded his first Gospel CD entitled "Uniquely Huriyah" which contained the #1 smash single, "If You Can't Help Me". A few years later, Huriyah started his own record company, Royal H Records. Under Royal H Records, he recorded and released a smooth, soulful mixture of Gospel and R&B CD entitled "Huriyah Has Arrived From The Planet Hugh Boynton". During his career, Huriyah has worked with many of the greats of our times including: George Clinton, P-Funk All-Stars, Four Tops, Al Hudson and One Way, Hamilton Bohannon, David Ruffin of the Temptations, Greg Allmon and The Allmon Brothers and Enchantment. Today, Huriyah Boynton, an accomplished artist, writer and producer continues to "WOW" crowds around the world with his soulful sound, which is reminiscent of his idol, the late great "Mr. Otis Redding". Working with producer, Dave Roberson, Huriyah pays tribute to Mr. Redding on his sensational new CD entitled, "Royal Flush, A Tribute To The King Otis Redding".
