Blend of club, pop, and R&B music. 6 MP3 Songs POP: Pop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Show all album songs: Bre Songs Details: "I have always loved singing and performing, ever since I was a little girl," recalls Bre. "My long time dream has always been to be a famous superstar." Says Bre, "I went to the best vocal coach in Utah, Dean Kaelin, and I auditioned for his class." Not surprisingly, Kaelin was highly impressed by the young talent and accepted her on the spot. Impressed by her drive and determination, her vocal coach told her about a showcase he believed Bre would brightly shine at. "Of course I performed in it, cause I knew it would be a great opportunity for exposure, and I knew that there would be some important people there." From that showcase, Bre met Andrew Lane, who was highly interested in working with the singer on a more professional level. Lane, who is best known for his musical production on Disney's "High School Musical," has worked on projects such as the "Hannah Montana" soundtrack, Tupac, The Backstreet Boys, P. Diddy, and countless others. When Lane began closely working with the artist, he began calling her Bre. "Bre. You look like a Bre," he would tell her. she became the artist we know to be Bre. Bre describes her music style as "Pop and R&B with a bit of Ciara-like flare, but definitely my own sound." This is the release of Bre's debut album. Bre is currently working on another album and getting ready for many performances. When she is not busily at work on her music, Bre loves to relax with a good movie. "Dumb and Dumber is my favorite movie!" laughs Bre, "How could it not be?" Often, being true to her glowing talent, Bre can also be caught listening to Mariah Carey, Brian McKnight, or Jo Jo on her I Pod. Certainly, many see no reason to find Bre aside from the top. Currently working closely with Full Regalia Entertainment, Bre is hard at work recording, rehearsing, completing photo shoots, and knocking out all other essentials for sky-rocketing to the top of the charts. And is customary in everything she does, she strives to be simply the best and is always on the quest for giving the best of herself to her fans, her family and what she does best -- her music. Tags: pop
