Traditional Southern Gospel 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Dale was born in Carter County, Tennessee to Roby and June Williams. He has two brothers, Hubert who is deceased and Kent; two sisters, Etta and Judy. He began singing in the third grade. He sang Silent Night as a solo for his elementary school. His teenage years were spent singing in local churches with his Mother accompanying him on the piano. A big part of his adult life has been singing with friends and family. He enjoys singing when called upon and has sung for many occasions. He has encouragement from his wife Cathy, daughters Kristin and Katie, and his son Michael. Today, Dale feels God's call to sing and share the good news about Jesus, his Savior. His prayer is that the gospel songs he sings will help people remember when they got saved, how good God is to them, and to help lost souls accept Jesus Christ as their Savior.
