Brit Pop, Rock, and Electronic mix. A little flavor for every taste. 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, ELECTRONIC: Techno Details: This cd includes two remixes of "Fade Away" by Rough Noise Divine. Dave Montana began playing music at the tender age of 4. As a young boy he had the aspirations of becoming a famous singer. He was auditioned for Menudo in late 1982. In 1983 Dave recorded with an all boy band named "Ocolomy" at the age of 13, playing drums and backing vocals. He also had the lead vocal for their cover version of Nilsson's "Without You". This band was managed by Eric Laboy who had previously managed the early career of latin sensation Chayanne. Later on he went on to play with several bands of all sorts of styles. From Heavy Metal to Calypso. In the late 80's he joined No You Turn, a Brit-Pop band from Puerto Rico who enjoyed much success after the release of their single "I Still Love You" which was remixed by Pablo Flores who has worked with Madonna, Gloria Estefan, Ricky Martin, Christina Aguilera and others. Dave also toured in Cuba with Taone in 1991. Dave Montana started working on his solo album in April of 2003 and since then he has had two songs reach the number 1 spot on NowhereRadioand Soundclick.com's Pop and Alternative Country charts with "Fade Away" and "I Want Someone". Dave plays all the instruments and does all the vocals himself.
