Country with a gritty Southern Rock edge. 9 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Outlaw Country, ROCK: Southern Rock Details: Galloway Kelliher have been playing music together in Central Florida on-and-off for over 20 years. Mike Galloway This Sanford-born, true Floridian was the founding member of The Midnight Creepers, King Snake Records' premier blues band. His searing vocals and bone-crushing harmonica played a dynamic role in the sound of this legendary blues band. Mike's talent was also lent to the other great artists in the King Snake Records stable: Floyd Miles, Noble "Thin Man" Watts, Ace Moreland, Alex Taylor and Sonny Rhodes. Of late, he has been seen across the country touring with famed guitarist Les Dudek. Also played with Ricky Matlocke of Lynyrd Skynyrd on the last Blackfoot CD. Tim Kelliher This transplanted Yankee, who moved to Florida at the age of two, had "quite a little of the South rub off his way." He played around the Central Florida music scene with local bands, The Snooks, The U.S. Males, and of late, Skin Bone. Known as a "sideman," Tim played guitar with many blues artists: Carey Bell, Earl King of New Orleans, Bo Diddley, Nappy Brown. He also played with Lester Chambers (Chambers Brothers Band) for two years on the road, as well as a lot of the King Snake artists: Alex Taylor, Noble "Thin Man" Watts and Ace Moreland. Music runs thick in this man's blood. His cousin is the famed guitarist Mark Emerick in the Commander Cody Band, currently touring the country. People who are interested in Lynyrd Skynyrd The Allman Brothers Band Montgomery Gentry should consider this download.
