Gary Boyle is being called "Canada's Country Balladeer" and you will see from his album of songs that they include ballads that are indicative of his smooth mellow voice. His songs include those of Eddy Arnold, Burl Ives, Kris Kristofferson, and Jim Reeves. Gary only records a song where he can bring his own unique style. Gary has performed all over Canada, parts of the U.S., and more recently in Australia. He has been part of shows with such artists as Don Heron, Jack Greene, Jett Williams, Cal Smith and more. His new CD coming out in February, 2007 will contain original material Gary wrote himself along with 5 bonus tracks. Gary is one of the performers on the Victoria Country Music Awards show in Australia in February 2007 and also will be attending the Tamworth Country Music Festival in Tamworth, NSW, Australia in January, 2007. Gary does alot of corporate functions and private parties as a solo artist, as a duo with his drummer or another guitarist, and does alot of concerts, wedding receptions and shows with his entire 4 piece band that you hear on the C.D. Gary has been interviewed on numerous radio stations and always has a terrific response to his songs. Radio personalities in Europe and Australia have very high praise for his work and play his songs often on their shows. UPCOMING PERFORMANCES: Dec. 1-3, 2006 Crhistmas Festival, London, Ont.
