Details: Henry Blair is a worshiper/songwriter who constantly ministering to others with his God given musical talents. Like most gifted singers, Blair started singing at a very young age. He comes from a closely knitted, highly talented, musically inclined family who, with God's guidance, inspired and developed his natural ability to sing and write songs. His love for ministering is achieved by spiritually blessing audiences in churches, at revivals/musicals, military ceremonies and weddings. He sharpened his natural talents by studying professional voice coaches and through God's divine guidances. From a very young age, Blair has been a Psalmist, ordained to spread God's message, the Gospel of Jesus Christ, throughout the world. His virtual range of musical influences includes his dad, Psalmist Donald Blair Sr., Nat "King" Cole, Donnie McClurkin, Fred Hammond, marvin Sapp, and Stevie Wonder. While gospel music comes first, Blair finds additional inspiration in jazz and ballads. music he feel that touches the heart and soul. This energetic Ordained Minister, worshiper and dynamic vocalist is in great demand throughout the United States. He constantly requested to deliver his spirit filled, soul soothing, and heartfelt rendition of gospel favorites: "Running Back To You", "I Need You Now", "Stand", and his original "He Knows How Much" at all types of gospel and social events. He has pleasure of performing with Brian McNight, Brown Stone, Rev. Poole(from the Comissioned), Oscar Williams Jr, Stephen Vaughn and the Mt. Zion M.B. Church(Georgia). Henry has recently received the honors of singing for President George W. Bush. He is also well known for his Tradition rendition of the National Anthem. Henry is the Psalmist of our time and age,,,,,,,,,
