Built upon the acoustic beauty of "a cappella" and combined with one astounding vocal percussionist, Home Free has been amazing audiences all over the Midwest since 2000. With their extensive theatrical and musical training leading the way, Home Free's performances showcase a new, animated, and electrifying experience that leaves audiences breathless. Eschewing traditional forms of a cappella, Home Free is carving new ground, expanding their audiences horizons, and introducing its own unique flavor to the musical world. Their genre of music is an expansive mix from pop songs to classical and even techno, all successfully done with only the human voice and microphones. This music is put to the explosive beats of one of the most exciting vocal percussionists in the a cappella scene. Home Free has performed for a diverse clientele, ranging from the Minnesota Vikings to the Mall of America. They also devote their time to educating and encouraging music in our public schools through innovative workshops and concert fundraising. Their programs have raised thousands of dollars for local schools in Minnesota. MusicInOurSchools.org Home Free is doing what they love, anxious to continue pushing the boundaries of what they can do, both musically and professionally. HomeFreeAcappella.com
