Her music has been performed and played throughout the USA, Europe, Canada and Asia. She has performed professionally for over 28 years, including performing for President Gerald Ford, opening for Symphonies, and stars Bob Newhart, Liza Minelli, Michael Feinstein, to name a few! She continues to perform 2 charity concerts each year, and also performs for private political functions. Her 7th Album, BRIDGE, is currently being recorded and mastered. All Albums are original compositions. Educated as a classical pianist from age 5, Jennifer began composing at the age of 15. She has played and been educated in all musical instruments, as well as voice and conducting. In 1974, Jennifer's Music tour group won the International Music Award in Vienna, Austria. Her first album, Content Destinations, was released after graduation from Saratoga High School, undergraduate degrees from UCLA, and post graduate studies at UCLA. 3 BA's, 1 MA, fluent in Spanish. She also holds a California Real Estate License and has held a California Bilingual Teaching Credential. She continues to take graduate courses at the University Graduate level to keep current with trends and with her college children! Jennifer has spoken at local institutions about her various careers. She remains prepared and practiced (attempts 2 hours daily), as a professional sight-reader, performer and adjudicator. Jennifer is a TRI-CAREER woman: REAL ESTATE-MUSIC COMPOSITION/PERFORMANCE-WRITER. But her favorite job is actually raising her children and being best buds with them! Real Estate open houses on her listings who have pianos receive a special treat as Jennifer performs as potential buyer's view the homes! Soon afterwards, 4 subsequent albums were released, Relevant Paths, Christmas Concertos, Traffic in Paradise, and Well Lit Passage, both solo piano and orchestrated solo original compositions as a composer for BMI. Jennifer has written several musicals which are incorporated into her 6 solo albums. In addition to composing and performing for charities, Jennifer has conducted local school bands and vocal groups. Jennifer has published 3 music manuals, a children's musical theory coloring text, and has written her first poetry book now released (Definitive Natures, Jennifer Small Steinberg, Vantage Press Inc, New York, New York). Currently, Jennifer is working on two other books! 50% of proceeds from Positive Persistence will go to PAL-The Performing Arts and Lecture Center building fund so students may have an auditorium and the community a place to attend concerts and lectures near the Saratoga High School campus, located in Saratoga, California.
