"The World in my Head" 2000, "Somewhere's Waiting", 2002 "All Over the Place" 2005, and "Deep Sleepers" 2007. He appears as a studio musician regularly on local artists projects as a songwriter, guitarist, bass player or vocalist, and is known for writing some of the catchiest jingles in the Cincinnati radio market. His next CD tentatively titled "Songs You Know You've Never Heard" will be finished by years end. From the makers of the movie "Dead Horse" is another movie coming this/early next year called "The Finger" Kevin has written a song called "the Finger song" for the film which will be used in the course of the movie and in the closing credits Kevin Fox loves to travel! In 2005 through 2008 he covered most of the east side of the country playing over 200 shows a year and venturing from Jacksonville, Florida, to Madison, Wisconsin, to New York, NY. What set's his music apart from most is the combination of catchy lyrics, interesting changes, and the ability to jam when it's necessary. Influences vary all the way from James Taylor to Van Halen to Dave Mathews to Nirvana to Toby Keith and back again. Although he writes in many styles for many artists, his own music has been compared to bands like Bare Naked Ladies, John Mayer, Tom Petty, Sublime, and Santana (when he goes latin). It's usually the catchy Refrains combined with insightful verses and a sense of humor that earn him his fans. He's recently opened shows for Tracy Byrd at the Cincinnati Convention Center, Sister Hazel at the Sawyer Point P&G pavillion, and Anthony Campbell. With his 5th CD "Songs You Know You've Never Heard" almost in the can. He hopes to break out in 2009 as an artist and a songwriter. ORDER KEVIN FOX MUSIC ONLINE AT WWW.CDBABY.COM/THEKEVINFOX BAND
