Congratulations to Marilyn on this quality album Deborah Minter, CAPITAL NEWS." What a great year for singer/songwriter Marilyn Steele who, after releasing her debut album This Passion in 2005, won the TSA Award for the title song. She then received 2 finalist nominations in the Tamworth Songwriters Awards for Ten Less Candles and Charades, both off the album. All that was topped off with the Independent Artists EP Award nomination for her first EP, Forever. Since then Marilyn has been busy with many radio interviews, live performances and much overseas interest with a #1 spot on the playlist in Denmark for her comedy hit single, Ten Less Candles. There have also been shining reviews of the CD both here and overseas. Marilyn was born and bred in Sydney, Australia and one of her 'passions' is Australian music and the heritage of her country. This is strongly reflected in her writing and music. Merilyns Dad bought her first guitar for her when she was just 12 and began taking her to music lessons. She loved artists like Linda Ronstadt. She penned her first song at 14 and never looked back. Today her influences are more contemporary and include Kasey Chambers, Beccy Cole, Shania Twain and even Alanis Morissette. Marilyn is a regular at the Tamworth CM Festival and has appeared at many other festivals such as Kempsey, Wauchope, Mildura and the Newcastle Steel City festival. Marilyn has a driving passion for her music and a craving to perform. Particularly, she loves the feedback and buzz she gets from a live audience. An experienced performer, she has worked successfully with her duo/trio, Alter Ego, for the last 10 years and performed locally, interstate and in New Zealand. Shes had training by some of the best in the industry including songwriting workshops with Kasey Chambers, Garth Porter, Graeme Connors, Beccy Cole Catherine Britt. Marilyn has been support act to entertainment greats like Lucky Grilles, Chad Morgan and Normie Rowe. Her last single Charades, released March 2006 is a favourite with fans at her live shows and is creating much interest with radio. Marilyn is now working on creating exposure for her songs both locally and internationally. Having recently been signed to South Australian based independent publisher, Imagine Music, there are exciting times ahead for such prospects. You Dont Wanna Know achieved Top 100 status in the 2005 Musicoz Awards country category, and Forever came in at #49 in the 2006 Musicoz Awards for Best Country Artist of The Year. Marilyn continues to hone her craft and is eager to tour and perform her songs to audiences throughout Australia and beyond.
