New devotional and meditative renditions of Western piano classics 12 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Piano solo, NEW AGE: Environmental Details: Born in 1980, Naamleela has lived most of her life on the sacred island of Naitauba in Fiji. She has been trained as a sacred musician since the age of five, concentrating in both Western and Indian classical music. While travelling California, Hawaii, New York, and Europe, she has received training from numerous sources and influences. She holds a master certificate in music production through the Berklee College of Music Online. Her albums range from classical piano to devotional chanting, and are all offered in the disposition of communion with the Divine. Her music is inspired and dedicated to her Guru, the Ruchira Avatar Adi Da Samraj. "I made this album in honor of the 10th anniversary of the first CD I ever made: Hers To Me. Again for this album I chose many of my favorite pieces that I have been playing for the last 10 and more years. In the background of the whole album you will hear the natural environment of Naitauba Island, Fiji, where the recording was made."
