ROCK: Americana, ROCK: Roots Rock Details: The new release By New Jersey Based Paul Gargiulo Band "Life Pouring Through" 10 new original tracks from Boogie Blues to Funkabilly Swing. The first track "She Be My Queen" a driven song with chicken, picken guitar solo in the styles of Jerry Reed, Gatton, and Beck. Hammond B3 played by "John Ginty" formally of the Robert Randolph and the family band John appears on 4 tracks. This CD is filled with energy, songs like Red White and Blues a Western Blues swing dedicated to our Country with a pedal steel chord solo break. Grooving bass and drums in "Lone Traveler"with more of a jazz influenced solo very cool, a funky tune talks about Paul's trip to Memphis where he plays and sings to make a dime to get back home. The slow groove'n blues "It's Time For Me To Go" powerful lyrics is a personal song with a lot of gut's. Excellent vocal and very powerfull ,the ending is some intense guitar playing very tasty with lot's of feeling. Horns are on two tracks by "Dave Mullen" superb job! Listen to the last track "I See Home Real Soon" very intimate jazzy song with some interesting chordal harmony going on with sensual vocals influenced by Ray Charles. Two great Instrumentals on the CD "Sunset Sunrise" with hint's of Buchanan and Beck also "Swing From Saturn" is out there, think Django, Martino with a Gargiulo twist take a listen to the whole song there is some interplay between instruments that is extreamly wild. Original songs catchy lyrics and vocals, a very tight unit. Well there is to much to say as the Paul Gargiulo Band has been interviewed and performed on Jersey 12 and NY 12 news.
