Elisabeth, daughter of singer Betty Johnson, works in Madrid with her colleagues. Both she and Miguel Morant are well known in Spain thanks to years of televsion jingles and background vocals for other other artists, as well as roles in the Spanish version of Disney films and tv series. Damian, nephew of Paco Rabal, has lent his talent as a musician to many famous artists in Spain, and also enjoys a successful carrer as a sound engineer,having worked for the top studios as well as the Disney Channel. The three decided to put their years of experience to work for them and founded Robin Estudio, a company which offers a wide range of musical services, including recordings in their own studio. What better way to start off a company than creating their own Christmas cd in a modern style that turns traditional into trendy!
