Everybody loves Hawaii, and SCOTT KATSURA has captured its' universal essence on ALOHA MILES AWAY. SCOTT KATSURA crosses musical borders from adult contemporary to pop dance, from hip-hop to Top 40. Katsura's silky and smooth voice along with his skills as a storyteller urges listeners to hear unique, original and classic songs - as if for the first time. ALOHA MILES AWAY was born shortly after the events of 9/11 - and in being a resident of Manhattan for thirteen-years, Katsura was affected to the first degree by experiencing both a spiritual and artistic revelation. Like never before, he was inspired to compose songs through his native Hawaiian eyes; he took a shot at producing himself for the very first time; he chose Hawaii as his theme for the project; he personally hand picked the entire production crew; and then he changed his professional stage name from Scott Allan (first, middle name) to plainly Scott Katsura (first, last name). Katsura succeeds in creating a musical montage representing his Hawaiian culture; his native home in island paradise; his second home in New York City; and his lifestyle of sharing the 'Aloha

Spirit'. Katsura hired people who shared the same passion for the production of ALOHA MILES AWAY - Broadway singer David Velarde and jazz pianist Martin Bejerano. In peaceful harmony, Katsura, Velarde and Bejerano have given birth to beautiful songs that are quickly becoming international landmarks. Katsura and ALOHA MILES AWAY are representing a global language of organic simplicity in a wholesome and refreshing way. In Katsura's own words, "Everyone near and far loves Hawaii. Everyone needs to know what the spirit of aloha is all about - sharing, caring, giving, living, family, love. Now, people are saying that I'm the 'Tiny Bubbles' Don Ho of today - stating there has never been another pop star of Hawaiian descent, ever - and that in these times of terrorism, war and international conflict - they say it's someone like me and Hawaii that the world wants to see right now. Who knows? I'm just being me." As for Katsura's own personal intentions with ALOHA MILES AWAY, he wanted to create an album with the concept of Hawaii - its' mystical beauty, exotic nature and friendly people - and he did that. He needed music with 'Aloha Spirit' - melodies that he wouldn't get tired of singing night after night - he got it. Most of all, he prayed to convey words that are close to his heart - lyrics that express his very existence here on planet earth - and Katsura got blessed with a gift of poetry. AIRTIME Recording Company graciously invites you... with opened-arms... to experience our magic of aloha... SCOTT KATSURA, the voice and music of sunshine in every season! That's right... the beauty of paradise in your very own living room - all year round. Please be encouraged in helping us spread all over this world, ALOHA MILES AWAY and SCOTT KATSURA.
