Cross my heart, Ill see that its true. You will love me Like the sky is blue, As God as my witness, And Ill love you." Heartfelt, passionate, contemplative, and honest Sky Smith bares his soul to the world in his CD, You Will Love Me, crying, singing, and shouting out his inner thoughts to the beat of electronic drums. Born as one of the few naturally blonde natives of Miami, Florida, he kept his love of music a secret throughout a life of college education and even a 2-year job as a high school teacher until one day he felt an urge to let it out. His lyrics are fashioned off of twisted relationships, love triangles, everyday frustrations and triumphs, and that ever-present desire to love and be loved. Each song provides a story, idea, or argument for the listener to consider, and when taken altogether, the CD details love and life from its ups and downs to its ins and outs, delivering reason after reason as to why you WILL love him.
