URBAN/R&B: Blue-Eyed Soul, REGGAE: Roots Reggae Details: Following the release of his critically acclaimed debut album End of the Affair, enigmatic Sydney singer/songwriter Tamlin is quickly earning a reputation as a truly captivating performer. His sound takes its cue from a musical history soaked in soul, song-writing greats and old school rhythm and blues, which he respectfully reinvents in a chic hybrid of roots, rock and reggae. Fronting one of the best live bands, with Tamlin on vocals and guitar, Zoltan Budai (Richard Clapton) on bass, Jon Howell (Leonardos Bride, Chase The Sun) on drums and Scott Aplin (Move Trees, Delta Goodrem) on keyboards, Tamlin is impressing audiences with his compelling live performance. Tamlin is currently in the studio recording his second album Sea of One. His debut album End of the Affair was widely acknowledged as a striking collection of beautifully crafted songs and immaculate performances, including harmonica parts by blues legend Jim Conway. The album was produced by Tamlin and engineered by ARIA winner Jonathan Burnside.
