Details: TJ Walnut is the last remaining original Walnut Brother. TJ and his two brothers Jake and Marvin played country bluegrass music in the style brought over from the Dustbowl Depression Era as taught to them by Grandpa Walnut. Jake, unfortunately, was killed in action in Vietnam. Marvin rolled his 57 Ford which ended his life at the tender age of 21. With the passing of Grandpa, The Walnut Brothers were all but finished Years later, there was hope after all! TJ figured out a way to bring back the old country/bluegrass style that his heart and soul yearned for. His own two sons had learned to play mandolin, guitar and harmonica. TJ enlisted the talents of his very own boys to carry on the Walnut tradition. Junior Walnut and Shoestring Walnut stepped in and a new chapter in the Walnut Brothers book was written Step back in time with The Walnut Brothers as they bring original and traditional country and bluegrass standards to your ears eager for that authentic, solid sound we have all missed since the days of Jake and Marvin, and of course Grandpa Walnut.
