Here is A Quick And Easy Way To Get Loads Of Search Engine Friendly, Automatically Updated Content On Your Websites - All Delivered On Autopilot! Dear Friend, Its a well-known fact that Search Engines

love regularly updated content on websites. Sites which are regularly updated generally get ranked much higher than static sites that are created and then never touched again. However continually updating your site with new content is rather a lot of hassle. But now, there is an easier way. With our powerful Auto Content Pro, you can instantly add a small bit of code to your web pages that will deliver regularly updated, search-engine friendly content - taken directly from some of the top article directories - and shown on your web pages on autopilot. Get Free Automatically Updated Article Content Auto Content Pro allows you to harness the power of so-called Javascript Feeds. Many sites offer Javascript feeds, including several of the top article directories. To use a Javascript feed, you simply visit the appropriate article directory site, select a few options and then paste the supplied snippet of code into your web page. Instantly you get automatically updated content shown on your web page. It really is that easy! Here is an example of self-updating content that you can get absolutely FREE... You can choose from over 100 different niche categories on this article directory site alone. The directory will deliver suitable content to your site automatically - continually rotating the content for you - and including new articles as they are added to the directory. With this solution, it really is a very simple way to get highly targeted self-updating article content - with very little effort. However there is a big flaw with all Javascript feeds. Javascript feeds are visible to your visitors, but since they are based on Javascript, they are NOT readable by Search Engine spiders. In fact, from a Search Engine perspective, these feeds are completely invisible. This is rather unfortunate as this undermines our primary reason for wanting to add them. However thats where your copy of Auto Content Pro comes in. The software fixes the problem, by automatically converting the feeds provided by the article directory into fully search engine friendly content. Easily Add Search Engine Friendly Feeds To

Your Sites Auto Content Pro can be used to add search engine friendly Javascript feeds to any web page
- in just a few seconds.
