"Who Else Wants To Discover How To Create and Sell Small Products and Sell Truck-Loads of Them?"

Low-Ticket Products Are The Easiest To Sell Because Your Prospects Hardly Need To Think Twice About Making A Buying Decision... Dear Friend, Before you start selling a high-ticket product you need to first create a low-ticket product so that your customer can move down your sales funnel. It's important to price your low-ticket product as low as possible, but at the same time not devalue the product. This will ensure that you'll get as many qualified customers in your system so ultimately you'll make more profits per customer. The problem is coming up with ideas and generally creating a low-ticket product. What topic should you base it around? What price should you put? What types of low-ticket products can you create? How do you write a salesletter for a low-ticket product? These types of questions appear all so often so I've written a special report to teach you the concepts of low-ticket products. Introducing...
