The album was recorded in Los Angeles solely by Ursulla Tadlock and Brad Davis. It was also independently released on their own label Top and Bottom records. By the summer of 2004 they had also launched an EP of 5 new tracks and toured the south in support of it. Originally from New Orleans, Brad and Ursulla both spent their formative musical years in bands like The One Seventeen's, Geographic Tongue, Dead Betty etc. They recorded several independent albums and played in all major venues within the city. Yet, in the summer of 2002 an opportunity arose to record in Los Angeles and it was there that this new project emerged. Atomic Bitch the band is a 4 piece with Ursulla up front, Kaylan - Bass, Jonathan - guitar and Brad on the drums. Atomic Bitch is looking forward to a very exciting 2005. Their 2 releases are now featured on Pulse Radio UK, Xm Satellite interpunkand the Apple Itunes Music store. They are also pleased to announce a joint venture with Tucker records of Canada. tuckerrecords.com. Currently the band is continuing to mine the Los Angeles music scene and seek a distributor for their material. They also began recording a new album of songs set for release in Summer of 2005.
