Details: Rick Clifford Songwriter and Musician Lead and Rhythm Guitar Piano and Keyboards Rick is a songwriter who started his music career at an early age. He started doing shows as a single act around the Florida music scene. He formed his first rock band in South Bend Indiana with a group named Lake Effect in 1984. The band became successful quickly with their covers of blues and rock. Rick was performing songs that he wrote which led the band into backing many popular bands touring the Midwest area. Ricks unique guitar leads helped build his reputation around the area as one of the premier guitarists in the Midwest. Joe Michaels Songwriter and Musician Lead Vocals Piano and Keyboards Bass Guitar Joe is a singer/songwriter who started playing bass guitar with the Lake Effect Band in 1984. His style of playing helped deep root the backbeat of the band. After years of playing rock and blues Joe decided to change his style as well as instruments and began a career with playing in country bands in the Midwest. Joe has since went on to do single shows around the area. He has built a reputation of having an energetic and strong stage presence to help captivate his audience with his music. Clifford Michaels: Together Rick and Joe put together some of their best artistic work. They have been receiving rave reviews from the local area and are excited to promote their new CD. Rock House Records is proud to represent these two individuals and know that they have the capability to generate a bigger, broader fan base and bring more excitement to the entertainment industry with their music. Clifford Michaels LIVE: In concert Clifford Michaels produces a high energy, entertaining, crowd pleasing experience. Backed by an 8 piece band, the energy and wall of sound brings the crowd to a fever in anticipation of getting what they paid for and more from the duo. Their tour de force of songs brings chants and crowd participation with every show and nobody goes home disappointed.
