What if Arthur Lee, Dan Hicks, Bette Midler and the Seldom Scene got together for a jam? Rock, folk, swing, new grass and reggae interweave through this collection of original songs - engaging lyrics, hot licks, tight harmonies and a bit of hocus pocus. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Jam-band

Details: DISENSEMBLE includes 14 songs with multiple influences from rock, folk, swing, new grass and reggae. In a word, eclectic - but that doesn't begin to capture the performances by the accomplished musicians. Tight harmonies by Laurie Howard, Jen Maurer and Barbiel Saunders...hot licks on banjo, dobro, violin and harmonica by John Saunders, Ron Johnson, John Reynolds and Sam Rettman...solid rhythm by bassist Steve Begala and drummer Allen Maier...all bring out the best in a collection of songs by guitarist and singer John Begala (one written with Rocky and George Kurchak during their Work in Progress days). The music will make for happy feet and the lyrics for a roving mind and spirit. Sit back and enjoy, but be warned: by the third time through, it might be hard to resist cranking it up a bit.
