Vintage lyrical southern-style hip-hop from New Orleans 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Artist Information Instrumentation Biography From the heart of New Orleans comes Frank Deno. An emcee born and raised in the currently hurricane Katrina damaged Ninth ward. Frank grew up in one of the biggest and most dangerous housing projects called DeZire. It was there where he first learned and understood the word survival. His music reflects his background speaking about life below the poverty line and trying to find a way out, whether it be positive or negative. With an infectious delivery, creative southern wordplay, and mollatic production, Frank Deno is the definition of the Big Eazy. Website geocities.com/menacestry504 Discography Frank Deno's debut album is called Live From The Plantation. The first single is a laid back groove called N.O chill currently being played on local radio stations in Louisiana.
