Comedy music 14 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: "What I take from life, I give back through my art. So far I've taken nothing but crap." So says Henry Phillips, who has been seen performing his hilariously funny, twisted comedy songs and stories on Comedy Central, ABC's 'Jimmy Kimmel Live' and NBC's 'Late Friday'. He can also be heard regularly on the 'BOB&TOM' Show, performing such comedy songs as 'The Guitar Pill' and 'She's Talking Again'. His nationally released comedy CDs, fusing mellow folk-rock ballads with taboo-smashing lyrics have earned him mention in Billboard magazine's 'Critic's Choice', as well as acclaim from the king of comedy music himself, Dr. Demento, who referred to Phillips as "The funniest young singer-songwriter to come our way in quite a while." "His arsenal of catchy guitar tunes, deadpan delivery, and rapier wit annihilates relationships, political correctness, pop culture, and the news." - Susan Karlin, Los Angeles Times "...fusing the mediums of comedy and music is so difficult that you have to go back years to find something comparable." - Jonathan Widran, Music Connection Magazine
