Dark electro-ambient music with ethno-world touches. 20 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes Details: Ishur Ninku began as an outlet. I needed to express the moods and textures that were swimming through my head. I thought this would be a one time thing... In the summer of 2000, I wrote the first two Ishur Ninku songs ("The Mystic" and "Shroud"). I really had no idea then, that I would actually complete a full length CD, much less a followup! The Self Titled first Ishur Ninku CD (S/T) was the result of painless hours spent with sequencers, guitars, and anything else I could lay a hand on. It was simply the most pleasurable recording I've ever done. Rarely does the recording process go so smoothly and offer so little stress. With S/T, I was really listening to a lot of stuff with an Eastern vibe. I had also been reading a lot of materials on the Ancients and various prophetic utterings. Inspiration would come, and I would happily pursue it. An outlet... Well maybe not anymore. In 2003 I felt the urge to write and record another Ishur Ninku CD called Shiva (the "i" is pronounced like the word "shiver" - the word is from the Jewish funeral ritual). It is darker, more brooding, and maybe a little more atmospherical than S/T. In fact, I may have been listening to too much Tangerine Dream while writing it! Shiva featured a more textured and ambient approach. It's 2006 now and the legend continues. I have released S/T and Shiva on one CD called "Contemplation (A Collection)" (available right here at CD Baby). This compilation contains all songs from the first two CD's as well as two brand new, previously unreleased songs. Ishur Ninku is a means to temporarily escape the rock and roll style of my band Sombrance. It is an instrumental exploration into the electronic genre and a journey through ethnic, shoegazer, and ambient sounds. Peace Rick Mester ----- What are people saying about Ishur Ninku? I want to close my eyes and sit back and relax to the sound of these soothing beats.. Am loving the vocals especially in "The Dawn of RA." Meenu from California ----- I am impressed with your music. In fact, it's very moving like Exstus and Govinda's... let me know if you ever decide to come play in Austin! Nina from Texas

----- I enjoy the genre and vibe of your sound. It has a specific place in the ethosphere that can lay a framework for any setting or circumstance. Cosmic theme music... Will-Harmonic from California ----- awesome tunes! :-) Irach from USA ----- Great Music!! Awesome sound! Trance and dream inducing! Leja from Nevada

----- Dear Ishur, HOLY CRAP!!! YOUR SOUND IS AWESOME!!! I am really floored! Just amazing!!! Wow! Amethyste from USA

----- This is some of the best music that I have had the good fortune to stumble upon! Alyce from USA

----- We just added you to our favorites list! Beautifully hypnotic sound! Argyle Park ----- This is some of the best stuff I've heard in a while on here. I usually don't add bands to my friends list but this is too awesome not too. Mel from Nevada -----

Lovely music. You guys know how to create atmosphere. Fractured Light
