Jon's passion for original music started at the age of 12 years old, when he picked up a guitar and quickly discovered that he had a natural talent for playing and writing original music. Even at an early age, Jon's reluctance to play cover songs has led to the evolution of an original alternative and pop rock sound that has earned the attention of the music industry, his peers, and listeners. Jon's blend of hard driving rock and alternative melodies have led to a career of original song writing music that has birthed hundreds of songs. Jon's hard work and diligence have paid off, resulting in his latest work in the form of his debut CD, One Step From The Edge. Jon presently makes his home in New Mexico, recording his debut CD at Eagle Rock Studios and On-Fire Productions in Albuquerque and has just completed filming his debut video (for release in the fall of 2006) with director Walter Marin. Jon is now working on his second CD Straight Ahead that is scheduled for release in January of 2007.
