Traditional Gospel Details: Joni Tindall, from Columbia, South Carolina is an Ovarian Cancer survivor, an ex-Police Officer with the City of Charleston, South Carolina Police Department, and a former Las Vegas Showgirl, who returned to her spiritual roots at age 43. Her story of Cancer survival at age 17, and life in the entertainment business will touch your heart and motivate your soul. Joni was encouraged along the road of return to her spiritual roots by the testimonies and faith of such notable friends as the incomparable Smokey Robinson and the Reverend Della Reese-Lett, as well as "The Henley's," Bob III and sister Patti. Joni turned her eyes fully toward the Lord in the year 2000 and was blessed to receive new life and a voice with which to sing His praises. She does so now to honor that blessed gift with the 250 voice choir of the First Baptist Church of Columbia, South Carolina. God has done an amazing work in her life and she now shares her personal testimony through both word and song.
