We started playing basement parties with our 1st dj for a couple years or so and started getting used to being in front of people. We had some crazy parties I even remember 1 that the whole basement was half filled with those packing peanutz it was so fun to swim. We made a lot of friends and made our name Third Frame in the scene early because Ry Guy and Lux have a dope chemistry. Then Ddlux and Ry Guy started playing some live gigs @ local rock bar Columbia street west with a popular rock band @ the time. Then we hooked up with a mutual friend from high school which only seemed right and felt good @ the time because he was a very talented musician. We then proceeded to perfect our craft @ playing out and did so for five years straight 2-3 shows a week sometimes for free drinks and a little money if we were lucky. During that time we made and released 3 cds, made another rock n roll band "White Trash Disco" so we had an opener, made a video, and played with several national acts. Then Ddlux met Leok3 and dj Spot and introduced them to Ry Guy. We all kinda just cliqued together and started making music again because it was fun again and no other reason than that. Soon Spot became our third dj and for us we think the third time is a charm. So here we are love it or hate it but we will not stop making music until our last breaths. So until then we wanna thank all the fans and people who enjoy listening to our music we love you...
