With her father's murderer arrested, true-crime writer Camille Fontenot could go home. After years in exile, finally she vowed to publicize the sins of the past. That task should be easy...until she crossed paths with Sheriff Jack Savoie. He had once broken her heart, yet her feelings still lurked beneath the surface. Jack had always protected her, and if he knew of the danger stalking her, he'd stop her dig for the truth. She had avoided confiding in him until it was almost too late. Fighting her emotions, she had to choose between the man she still loved and the justice she needed.
