An intriguing conversation between two individuals discussing mans' fundamental desire for knowledge, within the parameters of their relationship, takes several bizarre twists including an out-of-body experience, before reaching the inevitable conclusion that no man can ever know everything there is to know. Adolph and Alex have been friends for a number of years and regularly hold a forum to discuss all manner of subjects. Adolph believes he possesses the superior intellect of the two; Alex, however, is more down to earth and does not hesitate to question his theories and proclamations with regard to Life, The Universe - And Everything. As the conversation progresses on the day in question we find there is more to Adolph and Alex than meets the eye and that events take place in our lives which have no logical explanation. Indeed, Alex is forced to confront and conquer inner demons as a result of a truly terrifying episode totally out of synch with the idyllic surroundings. Who is Adolph? Why does he appear to be so informed about such esoteric matters, and how did he really save Alex from a fate worse than death? Possibly the answers lie within each and every one of us - if only we would utilize the hidden powers we all possess to their full potential.
