From the acclaimed author of Calling Home comes a compelling new novel about the bonds between husband and wife, parents and children, and about the strength that lies within us, waiting to be tested. . Life changes in an instant. One day, Emmett and Lauren Sullivan's biggest worries revolve around the escalating taxes on their gorgeous Victorian beach house on Pawley's Island, South Carolina. The next, they're facing a devastating crisis. Emmett and Lauren have always been a team, working together to raise their daughters in this beautiful, tranquil spot on the edge of the Deep South. Now, with all their attention focused on nine-year-old Ainslie, they barely notice as their older daughter, Sloan, drifts further away from them and toward a reckless path that could tear the family apart. Deeply evocative and beautifully rendered, The Ocean Inside explores what it means to hope, to love, and to fight for what matters most, even in the face of overwhelming odds. "Janna McMahan's compelling voice offers an honest glimpse inside a family that is falling apart. McMahan's rich landscape and vivid characters enrich a story about family bonds, love for our children, and the lush, but endangered environment. Beautifully written, heartbreakingly honest, The Ocean Inside touches the soul with a sweet sorrow." --Patti Callahan

Henry, author of The Art Of Keeping Secrets Praise for Janna McMahan and Calling Home "This novel will delight and transport all who read it." --Luanne Rice "Fans of Jodi Picoult's work will appreciate this novel's sparse prose, unexpected plot turns and moral complexities." --The Louisville Courier-Journal "A lovely book." --Anne Rivers Siddons "In this poignant story of a family facing the prolonged illness of a child, Janna McMahan explores the complexities of love, duty, and the ties that bind. The Ocean Inside is a beautifully crafted, mesmerizing read which I highly recommend." --Cassandra King, author of The Sunday Wife
