Who ever said life was easy? Jenny certainly didn't. Jenny is so overwhelmed by fear and guilt, she finds it hard to draw a sane breath from one day to the next. Robert, a caring pilot who has fallen deeply in love with Jenny, will do anything in his power to make her happy. Even though he's perplexed by this secretive woman who refuses to even give him her last name, Robert loves her with all his heart. But Robert has his own grief to bear. As he tries to find out who Jenny is and why she is so fearful of him, he struggles with the grief of the loss of his father and sister. But even though he needs Jenny's comfort, he is more concerned about giving Jenny whatever support she needs to see her way through the storm that is clearly ruining her life. Against a background of strong supporting characters, this love story will tear at your heart. It's life as we know it: real, demanding, tragic, and intense. But Robert will not be defeated by Jenny's demons that come between them. Little does he realize he will have to give her his soul, and more, before they can finally find the happiness they both so richly deserve. Author: Celeste, Erica Publisher: Awe-Struck E-Books, Inc.
