You have never heard an accordion and clarinet play so beautifully together; classical music that's fun to listen to and will tickle your ears. 13 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: David Carovillano and Becky Sajo have wowed audiences with their virtuosic music and captivating stage banter as Canada's premier classical accordion and clarinet duo, Acclarion. Their repertoire includes classical masterpieces by Handel, Bach, Mozart, and Brahms, as well as sultry tangos, popular show tunes, and original compositions, designed to entertain audiences of all ages. Their music is regularly featured on national radio, and their live performances have been described as "magical" and "awe-inspiring". Acclarion's debut self-titled album captures the character and charm of this unique ensemble. The music on this CD defies the limits of what an accordion and clarinet can do together, and the sonic blend is truly special. "Some things go well together. A wink and a smile. Peanut butter and chocolate. Clarinet and the classical accordion." --National Post "Acclarion takes us on a musical tour of France, the Middle East, Italy, Vienna, and the cathedral walls and unifies it all with superb artistry." --Free Reed Review "A spectacular performance! I look forward to hearing more from this talented duo." --The Wholenote Magazine "Utterly charming. Good simpatico playing and a lot of fun to listen to!" --CBC Radio Visit Acclarion on their website at acclarion.ca You can also check out Acclarion on Myspace at myspace.com/acclarion
