"Extraordinary singer/songwriter... Carey Creed is a woman from whom we can learn about living courageously and with love..." -Cliff Johns 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folk Pop Details: "...Metaphysical Folkster...silver-voiced songbird... "With one Wammie already under her belt...one past nomination (Best Contemporary Folk album...) and two [more] Wammie nominations (Best Contemporary Folk Female Vocalist, and Best Artist--OVERALL! ), you could say that Carey Creed's star is rising. But it has been shining oh so brightly all the while....two First and one Second Place spot in the Songwriters Association of Washington Mid-Atlantic Song Contest...and two Honorable Mentions in the Billboard National Song Contest. "...Plum Branch features such illustrious studio staff as Tom Prasada-Rao (on a smooth R B duet as well as guitar, violin, and mandolin accompaniments) and Al Petteway [blazing acoustic guitar]. "Songwise, the contents are soft-spokenly politically correct. Gentle lessons about adultery, drug addiction, and adoption (a rare, touching thank-you to a mom who sacrificed her social dignity for her daughter's future) are all preceded by the last cut and shining jewel of the disc--'Prayer of St. Francis'. This modern motet is hypnotic, and lends a light to the deep spirituality living inside this little lady. "...Carey, you GOTTA be doin' something right. And I'll be watching for when your star goes supernova." These are excerpts from Patti Brett's article in Music Monthly.
