A musical collage of Dance Pop with strong grooves and melodic vocals. 5 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, POP: with Electronic Production Details: francesca gramm Performance began at the early age of five for Francesca when she was chosen by school talent scouts to play the leading role of the Pageant play ... not long after she discovered she could sing. Singing brought such joy, a career in music was inevitable. Francesca studied with private voice teachers in NYC and began writing songs in the early 90's. She appeared in many clubs performing her eclectic collection of pop tunes. Her three octave sultry, sometimes raspy, voice reflects influences reaching as far back as Billy Holiday, Patti LaBelle and up to present day Pink. The millennium brought about many changes including a shift in direction for Ms. Gramm when in 2003 she decided to have one of her tunes, "Instant Gratification", remixed by Warren Rigg, a brilliant, in demand dance/pop producer. A whole new world opened up for her, a world in which she felt very much at home. She created her own record label, MusicBanc Records, and manufactured vinyls CDs of "Instant Gratification" which became a hit in the dance clubs nationwide. Expertly promoted by Harry Towers it was aired on 120 radio "mix" shows. In addition Francesca recently received an award as a composer from the Popular Awards Panel of ASCAP for "Instant Gratification". DJs also loved her last single "Time Waits For No One". Promo copies burned up the airwaves and dance floors across the country even before it was released. This song was a total Warren Rigg production and was the perfect follow-up to her 2003 debut release. Also included on this CD were "must hear" remixes by KlubJummpers and DJ Steve Right Lavoie. MusicBanc Records will be announcing some personal appearance dates for Francesca, so visit her web site for more info on where you can see her and purchase CDs and vinyls. Francesca's artistic expressions are not limited to music. Her culinary art developed resulting from a natural talent for cooking and a surviving artist's limited budget. Plans for a cookbook are in the works. She has also designed many of her own fashion accessories and one day will have her own line available in stores worldwide.
