It's all here; hot diggity banjo anthems, screamin' diesel tunes and woeful songs about learning easy lessons the hard way. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, COUNTRY: Country Blues Details: Sounds like two covered wagons in a head-on collision! The Neighbors If you like country, bluegrass and raw rock n' roll, you came to the right place. A trio comprised of guitar (Sewer Rat), banjo (Yukon Jimijon) and upright bass (Chicken Dinner), Gcdc's songs have a way of getting inside your head and sticking there for months. That being said, Gcdc is anything but your run-of-the-mill acoustic act. Moving effortlessly between surf-inspired instrumentals (Surfin' The Soybeans), fist-raising drinking anthems (Gawd Dam), screaming diesel tunes (Burn) and thought-provoking melodic songs (You Ain't You), this album showcases the band's wide variety of influences. Recorded by Mike West at his 9th Ward Pickin' Parlor in Lawrence, Kansas, the album features a few special guests that help round out the sound; Mike West picks the mandolin, Billy Spears wails on fiddle, E minor blows harp, Violinifer makes things all purdy and Jim Bones plays the spoons. The band had a lot of fun recording this album and it shows...in fact, it's so good that you're gonna need at least five copies for your ma and them.
