Puddle stomping, rocket riding, bug eating fun. 14 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Thanks to the people at JustPlainFolks this CD is now award winning. It was voted the number 4 best children's album of 2004!!! Let's take our homemade instrument band and sing and learn at the same time. We'll visit the solar system, peek in Mother Hubbard's cupboard, take a walk in the rain and check out some bugs. Bring your space helmet and rain boots. Laura Freeman began singing for kids early on as a song leader when she was a girlscout. She moved into the world of musical theater and started writing and performing songs of her own. She has been entertaining audiences for more than ten years and singing at the table for as long as she can remember. Her love for children has inspired a whole slew of educational and fun sing-a-long songs. Math, the Solar System, Alternative Energy and Composting are all explored with the aim to awaken the children's curiosity about these important subjects. Now these songs are collected on her CD "A Baker's Dozen". These songs by Laura and her friends are fun for the inner 5 year old in all of us. Take a listen and be sure and sing a long.
