Rap mix Details: Louie SAINTS aka slickthe future originates from Harlem, New York. From an early age, it was evident that Louie was a creative soul with alot to say about his environment. He started as an MC, skillfully expressing his inner thoughts and life experiences through rhyme. He would later develop his skills as a producer, which many of those around him would say he is most proud of. Louie grew up around a large family, with his beloved grandmother as the matriarch. Growing up in such an environment exposed him to a variety of music, including 50's doo-wop, 60's classics and 70's soul. Through hip-hop, SAINTS has built on this musical foundation as he took the time to perfect his craft at the institution he affectionately calls 'THE STAY FOC Academy'. Now Saints is ready to bring quality music back to a genre that has lost much of its creativity in past years. The Future is NOW!
