Michael Bram is a multi-faceted musician. This album highlights his talents as Jazz drummer in an Organ Trio format, as well as his talents as blues singer and harp player. 8 MP3 Songs BLUES: Chicago Style, JAZZ: Acid Jazz Details: Review: "Like the greatest athletes, Michael Bram makes it look easy-- no, effortless. When he sweats, the beads fall of in perfect time." Roger Z, NY Blues and Jazz Society

Michael Bram, musical chameleon, blends in and is at home in any musical setting. He is formally trained as a percussionist and jazz drummer, but you can also find Michael crooning his favorite American jazz standards in the styles of Nat King Cole Chet Baker. He is most recently leading a down-home, swingin blues band playing the harp (harmonica). He is based in the New York City area. Michael has released his debut CD, Leroy, which showcases his talents as a blues singer and harp player, as well as jazz singer and drummer. This CD features Andy Stack on guitar, and Cary Brown on Organ and Piano. Yes folks that's right! This CD crosses the border from blues to jazz and back again. So if blues and jazz is your thing, be sure to check out this CD and the website of this multi faceted musician @ mikebram.com
