positive hip hop for the spiritually dehydrated 6 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Synopsis of Saith's debut cd: My Life is an anthem for everyone who is sick and tired of music that tells tales of riches and glory it's for people who are tired of living check to check but aren't afraid of telling the truth, in hopes that by sharing the story, perhaps we all can get ahead. Thug's Plea is a gut wrenching song that will put a knot in your throat; it speaks to the church about the predicament our self-righteous, stiff-necked ways have caused a whole generation to feel left out and shows us as a body just how unapproachable we've become. Get some Ben-Gay out and rub your neck before you listen to Save Me it's the first clenching, head-bobbing song that you won't want to ever end. It's the testimony of Saith from childhood through adulthood, I guarantee you won't be able to keep still. Who Told You Dat bridges the gap across all age barriers as old and young alike are witnessing the dire straits of our Black youth today; it addresses all the issues that face this generation, the ones that so many of us just see, shake our heads, say tisk tisk, and never do anything about. Til The End of Time is a love song with an ole school classic sound that speaks of a love that has transcended every doubter's wildest dreams, and shows that with God as the glue, the Black family is still a force to be reckoned with. This cd is truly positive rap for the spiritually dehydrated. If you're sick and tired of having to turn down your music when your kids walk in the room, this cd will not disappoint.
