Details: This album was recorded over a period of 12 months in Shane's home studio. All the tracks were written, performed, recorded and mixed by Shane to the highest quality, created through years of seeking the "perfect sound". Shane has been singing and songwriting for about 10 years, but it was in 1989 that he gained his first opportunity to sing in front of a live studio TV audience performing on the talent show "New Faces". After winning the encouragement award receiving particular interest from a judge on the show, "Molly Meldrum", Shane decided to embark upon recording his own music. He recorded his first song at Pet Rock Studio's in 1991 and he quickly developed a love for recording. Constantly inspired by new sounds and styles all the time, but constrained by the equipment available, he decided to build his own studio, enabling him the freedom to create his own style of music. Inspired by the great music makers of the 80's such as Michael Jackson and George Michael, this album has recreated the type of music we have all grown to love with a fresh new millenium sound.
