This is the new style comin straight out of the MID-WEST. Hard hittin ,street thumpin music.CHECK IT OUT..... 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Mo Shine Records, LLC Mo Shine Records, LLC is an established independent record label based out of South Bend, Indiana. South Bend is a old industrial city just to the east of Chicago and is home of the Golden Dome...Notre Dame college. Mo Shine Records was founded in 2003 by Dott-Lexxic and Ghost Wit Da Mos. The label boasts an array of different sounds, as it houses several different acts. These acts consist of a group called the Syndicate, (which consists of solo artist, Stuckey BoyGhost Wit Da Mos and D- Low Flexxican). We house another group by the name, Infa-Red, (Sol and Early Bird). The Mo Shine Records Family also consists of solo artist, Gotti Got Thangs, whose album My Letter will be released in December of 2006. The artists on Mo Shine Records have collectively sold over 35,000 units, combining gritty tales of the street life with the carnal knowledge gained by experiencing the streets up close and personal. They have performed all over the country with artists such as Twista, Juvenile, Eightball MJG, Lil Wayne, Do or Die, 3-6 Mafia, Bone Thugs-N-Harmony, Too Short, Young Geezy, Pitbull, Chingo Bling, Really Doe (G.O.O.D Music) and many more. We now have eight projects under our belt, which includes two mixtapes and six original albums. The first release from Mo Shine Records, entitled Family Business: We Ride Together -We Die Together, was a compilation of the entire roster. Dont forget the old Tragedy albums, and the solo projects that have been put out by the artist in the last ten years. One solo by Gotti and one solo for D-Low. Ghost has put out two solo projects in his career The most recent project that has been released on Mo Shine was, The Syndicate, which is entitled Flame Thrower and was dropped in December 2005. Be sure to call your local radio station and request the first single off of this album, which is the title track, Flame Thrower. Mo Shine Records also is one of two sponsors for Indianarap.com,

Ohiorapand Chicagorap.com(chirap.com). This site saw well over 3 million views in the year of 2005. We have five myspacesites. Collectively on myspace we have well over 200,000 plays and over 100,000 page hits this year alone. As well we are working with a producer, Buff Billions, which is managed by Grand Hustle Entertainment. We have recorded tracks at Quad Studios in NYC. We also have a mix tape out with DJ Phantom from WGCI.out of Chicago. Mad love to 99.1 wsmk (Niles, Mi) for spinning the new singles and showing that local support. We are featured on a sound track for a magazine out of California called WWS Magazine. As well we are featured on numerous mix tapes through out the country. We are also featured in Mic Magazine out of NYC. We are a strong part of xradio.biz and are spun in regular rotation on there weekday show. Dont forget to check out the special appearance on Gottis album, My Letter, by G.O.O.D Music recording arist, Really Doe. The list goes on and the grind stays strong. To any major head in the industry.I see you.Mo Shine is taking over the Midwestyou might want a piece of this!!!! Thank you for your timeGod Bless.. Todd Johnston Owner/ CEO Mo Shine Records, LLC

Syndicate The Syndicate is a group hailing from South Bend, IN. This is the debut album from the group which consists of three members. The first is D-Low Flexxican, an artist known for his ability to spit grimy rhymes hidden inside a smooth delivery. The second artist in the group is Stuckey Boy. Stuckey delivers street knowledge in a powerfully graveled voice that demands both the attention and the respect of the listener. The final member of The Syndicate is Ghost Wit Da Mos, who's lyrics contain lines inside of lines that only true street cats could comprehend. Together they form The Syndicate and their new album, which is entitled Flame Thrower and is being released on Mo Shine Records New Years Eve 2006, will set a new standard for hip-hop not just in the Midwest, but in the entire game of rap.The album boasts production by Buff Billions of Grand Hustle Entertainment, D-Fly of The Drama Ward, Finger Roll of No Tamin Entertainment and more. The title track for the album also serves as The Syndicates first single and is currently making noise from coast to coast on a variety of radio programs.
