Training women was a skill David Harper learned in Afghanistan. He continued using those skills back in Camelot, his school in England for submissive women. However, after a chance meeting with Justin, an old school friend, David is on the run. Across thousands of miles of Arctic tundra he is pursued by Justin and a woman named Sabrina. Sabrina is willing to undergo any humiliation to recapture David, and Justin is made to pay the price when things go wrong. But he is growing tired of playing second fiddle to a girl who once begged him to make love but now scorns him. As the journey comes to a close in Alaska, doubts creep into Justin's mind about chasing his one time friend, and he must ask himself which side he is on. Is it to be David and a return to male supremacy, or Sabrina and a lifetime of servitude?
