Through experiences that left him fighting for his life. Brody has endured tough times. He has a steadfast quality that has indeed been his trademark. Now Brody is set for the release of his debut album entitled "Pressure". Brody is no stranger to the pressures of life. He feels good about where God has brought him from as well as what the future holds. Being a student of his art form, Brody was on a hiatus with his music for some time. During the process he learned to be focused, patient, and just to sit still and listen for the Lord's voice. Preparation was a top priority in which you will experience on this album. Teamed with super producer Leroy Herron, whose fullness of production caught Brody's ear. You will notice a tremendous amount of creativity with no sampling. Brody being an established writer has decided to give his talents back to the Lord through his music.
