COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: DONNA FROST Donna Frost is a native Nashvillian dedicated to her creative spirit. She has performed across the US, the Caribbean and UK. Donna has a distinct style, blending folk, blues pop. Her latest CD, "Feels Like Home" has been added to many playlists overseas as well as indie stations in the US. Overseas DJs nominated Donna for the Artistic Award of Merit in 2002 for "Feels Like Home", which was also named one of the best CD's of 2001 by several dj's. Two songs made the top 25 in the indie charts in Europe ("Getting Younger" and "What If") and the title track, "Feels Like Home" went straight to #1 on the World Independent charts in Australia in December of 2002 and remained in the top 10 for 38 weeks. Her Christmas single, "Do You Hear What I Hear" was voted the #2 Christmas song on the indie charts in Europe for 2001 and charted again in 2002. Donna is a 2004 Kerrville New Folk Finalist and performed this spring at the New Folk Concert, Kerrville Folk Festival in Kerrville, TX. Donna tours year round in major cities throughout the US, and has performed at major festivals conferences including the Kerrville New Folk Concert at the Kerrville Folk Festival, Kerrville, TX, 2004, National Folk Alliance 2004, San Diego, CA, National Folk Alliance 2003 in Nashville, National Folk Alliance 2002 in Jacksonville, FL; Indie Music Fest 2001 2002, Nashville, TN; 2NMC, Nashville, TN, 2001; and Southwest Regional Folk Alliance 2002 2003, Kerrville/Austin, TX. When not on the road, Donna performs in Nashville clubs and is a very accomplished singer/guitarist songwriter. She also works as a demo and background singer in Nashville studios as well as in film video. Donna is an actress in local theatre and currently stars as Janis Joplin in the musical "Kozmic Blue-An Interview with Janis Joplin", which has had 2 successful runs in Nashville she will tour the US with the show in 2005. She has been on Nashville TV and radio programs including WSM's Opry

Star Spotlight, Mornings on Fox, and Music City Showcase. Donna performed with longtime friend and idol, the late Skeeter Davis on tour and at the Grand Ole Opry from 1996-2002. Donna also appears in a new book by Marley Brant, "Tales from the Rock and Roll Highway", which has been published by Billboard Books.
